WELCOME

From the Secretary General.

Dear Delegates,

It's my pleasure to formally welcome you all to Canberra and ANU for the fifth iteration of the National Capital Model United Nations Conference!

Over the past few months we at the secretariat have been working hard to bring you an exciting weekend of debate, socials and what we hope is a great opportunity to meet people from all across the country. As the ACT's only interstate MUN conference, we hope to use this opportunity to share the great (if often underrated) assets Canberra has to offer.

This year with an emphasis on small, dynamic committees we hope to give everyone more chances than ever to speak, get involved, and grow beyond their comfort in a safe and welcoming environment. While we have designed the committees to be fast paced and challenging, we hope first and foremost that NCMUN is an enjoyable and memorable experience for everyone.

For anyone who has any questions or concerns throughout the conference please feel welcome to send them our way, as we are here to make sure everyone gets the most out of their time in Canberra.

Welcome to NCMUN 2018!

Sincerely,

Felix Mechnig-Giordano

Secretary General, NCMUN 2018

WELFARE AND SUPPORT

Hello and welcome to NCMUN!

As your welfare team it is our priority to ensure an inclusive and respectful environment through the conference. While we trust you are all aware of the welfare concerns, and procedures highlighted outlined in the code of conduct, please always feel free to raise any concerns directly with our team, or through the anonymous reporting platform. We would like to assure everyone, that the welfare and wellbeing is a fundamental priority for NCMUN and that all issues will be treated with utmost respect, and urgency.

We know you are all very excited for the socials this year, but please remember the following guidelines to ensure everyone has a safe and enjoyable time. Please bring your NCMUN ID's and a government issued ID to all social events and venues. We cannot guarantee your admission without both those documents. Remember to drink plenty of water during the day, and especially during the socials. While we encourage everyone to have a great time, please drink responsibly (keep in mind committees start early!). Look after your friends, and make sure everyone gets home/to the next venue safely. While Canberra is generally a safe city, things do happen so please keep an eye on your drinks and walk home in groups if possible. Welfare officers and sober reps will be present at all events and will be available throughout the conference, so please don't hesitate to contact us. Last but not please be respectful! For many of us NCMUN I our first time at MUN, so please keep that in mind during debate.

On a lighter note, wondering what to do with your spare time? Don't worry, we have got you sorted with a list of popular food/drink venues. Located in the heart of the city, AKIBA is one of Canberra's most popular restaurants, combining quick service with award winning food. Keen on a burger? Why not try Mookies, one of Canberra's new establishments. Kinn Thai is always a favourite serving up a variety to suit everyone's taste. Finally for those of you who might want a cocktail to unwind after a long day of debate, try Kokomos a tropical themed bar with an extensive food menu. And remember, spring is here and that means Floriade is in town! Australia's largest flower show is a great excuse for a walk along Lake Burley Griffin to enjoy Canberra's (only slightly cold) spring weather.

Your welfare team,

Jesline Jossy and Mel Wanjiku
